Manure specially composted for fertilizing lawns. Conn. Concrete Co., 49 Church street.

Our old and esteemed townsman, Mr. John E. Bassett, has been confined to his home by illness for several weeks, but is now slowly improving.

The auction sale of the brick dwelling, No. 57 Trumbull street, near Whitney avenue, as advertised in these columns, will be sold by Beecher, auctioneer, at 11 o'clock this morning.

Royal S. Goldsberry, humorist and impersonator, will amuse an audience at the Dwight Place church this evening. He will be assisted by Miss Harriet Austin, the well known New York singer.

In selecting a holiday gift every one wishes to combine taste, quality and fitness. There are very few places in the country where this combination is as prominent as the store of the George H. Ford company. Their stock represents choice pieces collected all over the world, representing also not only magnificent pieces in profusion, but articles in great variety of small cost.

The New Haven Caledonian club will celebrate the twenty-fifth year of their existence in a manner befitting the occasion to-night. The proceedings will begin with a banquet, after which congratulatory and other speeches will be made by a number of prominent Scots. A fine musical and literary program will also be gone through, the proceedings terminating with a dance.

PULASKI CHAPTER ELECTION.

Pulaski chapter No. 26, R. A. M., held their annual convocation banquet and election of officers at their hall, 17 Grand avenue, Fair Haven, last night. The following officers were elected:

M. E. H. P., Frank P. Tyler; E. K. W. S., Rowe; E. S. J. S., Holiday; treasurer, J. O. Rowland; secretary, Francis Ray; C. of H., W. C. Laubert; P. S., Gottfried Ammann; R. A., C. S. Tourtelotte; M. of third V., E. L. Lindsay; M. of second V., Dr. Hutchinson; M. of first V., S. O. Loomis; Tyler, E. W. Holiday; steward, Dr. McNeill; and G. H. Nichols; chaplain, Rev. Mr. Countryman.

A fine banquet was served, the toastmaster being J. O. Rowland. Some of the speakers were Rev. D. M. James, Dr. Hutchinson, Selectman Joseph B. Cunningham and others. During the evening the retiring M. E. high priest, Lauren A. Humiston, was presented with a very handsome easy chair by the chapter. Rev. Dr. James made the presentation speech.

Chanukkah Ball.

A grand united Chanukkah ball was given by Lady Montefiore lodge and Independent Order of Rebecca Naomi lodge at Harmonie hall last night. The hall was crowded, over 150 couples being in the grand march.

The following were the committees in charge:
Floor committee—Herman Kraft, chairman; William Goldberg, Jewell M. Gompertz, Samuel Bernstein, Henry Schoenberger, Alexander Sherr, Frederick Goldbaum, Pinkus Goldbaum, Edward Weil.
Charities—Mrs. Dina Mendoza, Mrs. Jeanette Kraft.
Secretaries—Mrs. August Leichter, Jeanette Adler.
Treasurers—Mrs. Dora Apsel, Mrs. Mina Cohn.

FAIR HAVEN.

Mrs. Sumner, wife of Joseph Sumner, salesman for the National Varnish company, died at her home, 342 Grand avenue, yesterday. She was the mother of Mrs. Bates, wife of Charles F. Bates, secretary of the National Varnish company. The remains will be taken to Pomfret for interment.

Miss Edith Fowler of Houston street, who has been the organist of the W. C. T. U. for several months, has been presented with a handsome album in recognition of her services.

The steam barge W. E. Cleary arrived yesterday from Roundout with 1,000 barrels of Rosendale cement for W. A. Warner & Brother. The schooner Green County Tanner is expected this week with blue stone and cement for the same firm.

The Daughters of the King of Grace church netted about $25 from their Christmas sale.

The address before the W. C. T. U. Sunday afternoon at Sons of Temperance hall will be given by Walter R. Downes. Frederick Weld will sing several solos.

Owing to yesterday's gale none of the boat men went down to the oyster beds. The steamers worked, but it was a pretty rough day on the water.
An account of the ball of the Dayton Hook and Ladder company will be found in another column.

AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

A Very Pleasant Entertainment To-Night.

A fine entertainment will be given in the Grace M. E. church to-night, commencing at 8 o'clock. It will be a popular concert by the celebrated De Moss family, "Lyric Bards," authors of the Columbian souvenir songs. It is their twenty-fourth annual tour. They are singers and instrumentalists, poets and composers. They use forty-two musical instruments at each entertainment. The vocal quartet is as follows: Miss Lizzie De Moss, soprano; Miss Minnie De Moss, contralto; Mr. George De Moss, tenor; and Mr. Henry De Moss, bass. The musical feats are truly wonderful.

Mr. Henry De Moss plays three tunes at one time, playing two on a piano and singing another. Mr. George De Moss will give an imitation of chiming bells on the banjo and guitar at one time. He also plays two cornets at one time, a soprano and an alto. The ringing of Columbian hand bells by the Misses De Moss is an excellent feature.

MORE CERTIFICATES FILED.

Death of John McKay.

John McKay died yesterday morning at 4 o'clock at his mother's home, 75 Broad street, after a lingering illness. He formerly worked in Pfaff's machine shop, on Crown street, but for the shop, on years he held the position of janitor of St. John's Catholic club and of St. Aloysius T. A. and B. society in both of which he was highly esteemed. The funeral will take place on Friday morning at 8:30, from his late home, and after from St. John's Roman Catholic church, where a mass of requiem will be celebrated. Interment will be in St. Lawrence cemetery.

Yale Baseball.

The Yale baseball management has arranged for a game in May with nine prominent graduate players as a method of coaching. A game of this kind will probably be made an annual feature.

All primary teachers and others interested in the work are cordially invited to be present and join the association.

In Braintree.

The ladies of the Baptist Sewing society held their annual sale of fancy articles, etc., Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week. They also held the carnival of the months, including a New England supper. The fair was also open Wednesday afternoon and at 5 o'clock tea was served.

Another Ladies' Day.

Dr. Heldemann's panopticon and museum of anatomical wax figures and natural specimens in the Old Fellows' building, 97 Crown street, is still one of great attraction of the city. Large numbers of people visit the place daily, for their education and profit. Tomorrow (Friday) the ladies will have another opportunity to visit this instructive place.
